MR. J. M. C. BALLENDER.

His Death Yesterday Morning After a Lingering Illness.

At 4:15 a. m. Sunday the soul of J. M. Ballenger was released from its earthly coil after a long and lingering year, during which time his friends cheered him on to expect an extension of years in which he might again enjoy that excellent health for which, through 53 years, he had lived till December 22d, had been his boast and pride.

John Monroe Ballenger was born in Mayville, passed the preparing of man's estate in the common schools and at the youthful age of 14 years entered the employ of Dr. Hechinger; since that time he has closely identified with the business life of the town and has been conspicuous for his ability as a clothing clerk and merchant.

His parents were pioneer citizens of Mayville, and while few of their descendants now remain, yet, in the minds of the older citizens memory freshly paints their virtues and their life.

Mr. Ballenger in 1877 married Sarah E. Varian; to them came five children, four girls and one boy. The mother was called to her reward three years ago, and it is beside her mortal remains that her three children, now at 2 o'clock, come to devoted hearts and a loving father's body after religious services at the home on Fourth street conducted by Revs. Vaughn and Harrop.

A member of the Masonic and Odd-Fellows fraternities, he will receive the offices from the dead according to the rites proscribed in their rituals.

DeKalb Lodge No. 12, O. O. F., of which he was a staunch member, will have immediate supervision of the funeral—it having been his request.

It is to be hoped that no confounding words can stanch the flood of grief. Its weight of woe and heavy heart must lie till lifted by the hand of time which while slow in performance heals more effectively and casts away more surely the cloud of seeming impenetrable gloom which has yet shadowed him.

He holds a high position in the community and will be missed.

Mr. Ballenger was a man of great character, a friend to all, and a good citizen.

Over 2,000 Democratic Precinct Election Boards, 119 Democratic County Election Boards, and a solid Democratic vote elected Mr. Bryan over every other candidate in the creation of Mr. Goebel or his agents—certified to the following vote in the election of Mr. Bryan in Kentucky on Tuesday, November 7th, 1896.

Mr. Bryan, 191,714

William Goebel, 191,314

Taylor's Plurality, 2,383

MR. TOWNE will have to confine his remarks to the Committee on Decline.

WHEN the Democracy becomes really potent it should ask forgiveness for not having done the things it should have done and for having done the things it should not have done.

The election of BRYAN would be an endorsement of Goebelism, Red Shirtism, Tammanyism and all those unlawful methods employed by corrupt politicians for thwarting the will of the people.

The enemy's country is moving Westward much faster than the center of population. In four years it has gone from New York to Indiana, and by the end of this year even Kentucky will become the enemy of political fads.

UNDER the present Administration the United States is sending coal to Newcastle, cottons to Manchester, iron to Russia and machinery to all the world. The Democrats promise to stop this business when they get into power.

THE Democratic campaign managers were compelled to considerable guessing until Mr. BRYAN placed an interpretation on the Kansas City platform. The Philadelphia platform is so plain that he who runs may read and understand.

AFTER CANTRELL had passed sentence on the Hon. CALER POWERS he had the insuperable "gall" to ask him if he had any reasons why he should not have this punishment inflicted upon him. Mr. POWERS said he did, but they would avail him nothing at present.

Well—

THE Atlanta Constitution, which journal is a warm supporter of the Kansas City ticket, declares that Mr. BRYAN would keep the troops in the Philippines until a stable form of Government was established. The Constitution may not be authorized to speak for Mr. BRYAN in this matter, but it knows the sort of explaining his cause needs to make it acceptable to the American voter.

IT had not been for Republican "Expansion" Hawaii would not have become a part of the Union; if Hawaii had not become a part of the Union, a Hawaiian Delegate-at-Large would not have sat in the Democratic Convention and been a member of the Platform Committee; if it had not been for the vote of this Hawaiian member of the Platform Committee the 16 to 1 plank would have been beaten despite the telegraphic orders from Lincoln; if this plank had been beaten, BRYAN, according to his own words, would have refused to run for President. How, therefore, can BRYAN logically inveigh against Expansion, in view of the fact that he himself is a derivative from it?

CHARLES W. FENWICK, a soldier in the Philippines, has written home to his Democratic father at Herndon, Saline county, Missouri, and declares that the election of BRYAN is the one hope of the followers of AGUINALDO. The letter says there is no telling how much longer the bushwhacking warfare will last if the encouragement to the natives from the United States is to be further kept up. He further expresses very contemptuously the wish that Mr. BRYAN himself might have them to deal with, for if he had he would "change his tune." This is in line with the last letter on the subject by the late General LAWTON. The troops in the Philippines knew where to place the responsibility for the prolongation of their service there.

ABOUT the time Chairman JONES gave Mr. HILL pacific, Mr. CROKER breaks out in a new place.

The Democrats have never liked the donkey as an emblem of their party, and it is suggested that CROKER's $4,000 bull pup be substituted therefor.

UNLESS there is a free ballot and a fair count and an acquisitive result in the results of elections a Republic cannot live. In South Carolina there is not a free ballot. In Louisiana there is not a fair count and in Kentucky there is not acquiescence in the results of elections. Yet the party whose strength in Congress depends on such methods is now posing the friend of freedom and the savior of free institutions.

Corn-huskers' sprained shoulders, barbed-wire cuts and sprains, or cuts from any sharp object, will be relieved by Dr. John Hallard's Snow Ointment as promptly as you can say "Bingo."
